

THE NEW COLLEGE (AUTONOMOUS)
CHENNAI – 600014

CENTRE FOR MULTIDISCIPLINARY RESEARCH & INNOVATION (CMRI)

ANNOUNCEMENT

23.02.2021

With the aim of promoting research and innovation among, I year PG students, I year and II year UG students, the newly constituted Centre for Multidisciplinary Research & Innovation (CMRI), The New College, is inviting proposal from, I year PG students, I year and II year UG students of the college for Research and Innovation Seed Grant (2020-21) offered by the Management of the college.

Summary of Information

- Maximum Award Amount for UG/PG students: Rs. 20,000 (Rupees Twenty Thousand)
- Number of Awards for students: 15 (maximum)
- Award Duration: 12 months for students
- The fund will be released in four installments (based on the periodic progress reports).

Categories of Grants

- Arts & Humanities (English, Tamil, Arabic, History, Urdu, French and Hindi)
- Physical Sciences (Chemistry and Physics)
- Biological Sciences and Applied Sciences (Zoology, Botany and Biotechnology)
- Computational Sciences (Mathematics, Computer Science, Computer Applications, Information Technology, ISM)
- Social Sciences (Economics, Commerce, Sociology, Business Administration)

Eligibility: The applicant

: Eligibility Criteria for Research and Innovation Grant for students i) All I and II years UG and I year PG students are eligible for the award, provided they submit a proposal for the research idea they want to develop. ii) They have to undertake to complete the project before they complete their programme of study at the college..

NB: For more details, please read the research policy available on the college website or please contact the Dean of Research.

Submit the applications on or before 31.03.2021

Dean Research

PRINCIPAL